SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

[Notices or descriptions of social events intended for this column will not be published unless accompanied by the name and address of the writer.]

From 2 until 6 o'clock this afternoon the parlors of Mrs. T. B. Mayo were filled with ladies. This is the first reception of the season and the hostess and her daughter succeeded in making it a bright promise for future affairs of a similar nature.

The graceful, madeira and balloon vines were twined about the balustrade in the hall, hung in festoons on drapery and over pictures, producing the prettiest possible effect. Nasturtiums added their beauty to the parlor decorations, while the dining room, in yellow, had bowls of perle des jardins and other varieties of roses in this brilliant hue, on the table, sideboard and cabinets, mingled with more vines. Mrs. Mayo wore a handsome gown of black grenadine; Miss Mayo was attired in pale green gauze over green satin, and they were assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Edwin Knowles, Mrs. G. C. Foss, Mrs. S. B. Brett, Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. T. J. Hankla, Misses Mary Horner and Violet Church.

Heslet-Knowles.

At the First Congregational church today, at noon, Miss Bertha Knowles and Mr. James Heslet were united in marriage. As the organ sounded Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal procession entered the church; the ushers, Richard, Thomas and Fred Mason, preceded the bride and groom, who were followed by the bride and groom. The clergyman, Rev. L. Blakesley, met them at the altar, which was beautifully decorated with ferns and roses.

The bride was becomingly gowned in pearl white crepon with leg o'mutton sleeves and high collar of white satin. Folds of the satin edged the bodice, and a long tulle veil fell in soft folds to the hem of the trained skirt. She carried a bunch of exquisite bridal roses, and wore white satin slippers and suede gloves. Miss Mary Gordon as bridesmaid, wore a cream crepon frock cut square in the neck, with puffed sleeves reaching to the elbow, met by long suede gloves. She carried a bouquet of perle roses.

Mr. Lewis Roby acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the guests were bidden to a reception at the house of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Mason, 419 Clay street, and from 9 till 4 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Heslet received their friends.

The bride has been in the city clerk's office for a number of years as his assistant, and the groom is employed by the State Printing house. Both young people have many friends to wish them joy.

Downing-Thompson.

The marriage of Miss Lillie Grace Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Thompson, and Mr. D. A. Downing, of Tipton, Iowa, was solemnized at noon today at the home of the bride, 397 Chester avenue, Oakland. After the ceremony, performed by Rev. H. L. Smith, of the First Christian church, a wedding breakfast was served. The bride wore a stylish traveling costume of myrtle green cloth, trimmed with silk, and novelty velvet, and carried bridal roses. Only a few relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Downing left this afternoon for Tipton, at which place he is a leading merchant.

Nagel-Hughes.

Last evening at 7:30 o'clock Miss Florence E. Hughes and Mr. William L. Nagel were united in marriage at the home of the bride, 704 West Eighth street. Rev. L. Blakesley performed the ceremony in the presence of a small company of intimate friends who extended their hearty congratulations. The bride has lived in Topeka all her life and was a student in the Topeka high school. The groom is employed at Hall & O'Donaid's. Mr. and Mrs. Nagel will be at home after October 4 at 513 Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker and daughter Nellie returned from Colorado yesterday.

ATHLETIC CLUB ELECTION.

The Muscular Men Elected a New Set of Officers Last Night.

The Topeka Athletic club held its annual meeting last night and elected J. W. Thurston president of the club. Mr. Thurston is the cashier of the Bank of Topeka and the best bowler in the club. He has done much towards giving the organization its enviable reputation as a gentleman's club.

Mr. Thurston was the only nominee for the office. M. D. Henderson, secretary of the state board of railroad commissioners, was chosen vice president. W. C. F. Reichbach of the Santa Fe treasurer's office and chief consul for Kansas of the League of American Wheelmen, was elected secretary.

Fred Freeman, the assistant cashier of the Bank of Topeka, will handle the funds of the club in his capacity as treasurer.

The new directory consists of Samuel T. Howe, William Taylor, Charles T. McCabe, H. G. Larimer and D. J. Greenwald. The annual report of Treasurer Greenwald showed that the receipts for the year were $4,472 and the disbursements $4,374, leaving a balance on the right side of $97.85. There have been admitted 335 members, of which sixty have dropped out, leaving the present membership 275.

The STATE JOURNAL's Want and Miscellaneous columns reach each working day in the week more than twice as many Topeka people as can be reached through any other paper. This is a fact.

TEN DOLLARS AND DOG.

That Is What Judge Ensminger Charged Willis McCoy for Dodging the Dog Law.

Willis McCoy used to have a dog. Willis is colored and lives in Topeka where it becomes necessary at certain times during the progress of the fiscal period to chip in a couple of dollars per dog toward the support of the city.

Williams, who is also colored, does not live in the city and to her Willis confided his troubles and his dog. All this was a year ago.

Recently Willis concluded that he wanted the dog himself but when he asked for it Mrs. Williams didn't want to give it up. A faint heart never caught a good dog, however, and Willis bled his time till the dog came to town last week when he caught him and tied him up in his own yard. Mrs. Williams heard about it and was largely responsible for Willis' appearance before Judge Ensminger yesterday morning.

The case was argued in all its horrid details and Willis was fined $10 and the dog.

One Hundred and Six Moonshiners.

ASHLAND, Ky., Oct. 1.—This afternoon United States Marshal Greer and his deputies left for Louisville with 106 moonshiners just from the upper Big Sandy valley. The party is made up of women, boys and men, some of the latter typical desperadoes.

ANGLO-FRENCH RELATIONS.

They Are of a Difficult Nature and May Lead to Further Complications.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—The Figaro says: M. De Crais, the French ambassador at London, has returned from that city, much discouraged, and that the belief gains ground that he has been entirely unsuccessful.

The Figaro adds: "Our relations with Great Britain for some time past have been of a difficult nature. The truth is, the discussion of the Egyptian question is no longer ventured upon between Paris and London."

The Paris Temps, as already cabled, announced today that De Crais has resigned and that he will be succeeded by Baron de Courcil, who was president of the Behring sea tribunal of arbitration.

If the care of the hair was made a part of a lady's education, we should not see so many gray heads, and the use of Hall's Hair Renewer would be unnecessary.
